GEORGE MEN ANGRY.

AROUSED OVER THE INDORSEMENT OF THE CITIZENS COUNTY TICKET.

STANDING ABOUT IT-TOM L. JOHN-FON'S ENGINEERING OF THE MOVE-MENT-THE DROPPING OF

DR. O'SULIJVAN.

Consternation, confusion and chaos are strong words; but they inadequately describe the state into which the various political camps were thrown when the alleged "deal" between the Executive Committee of the Citizens Union of this city and the regular Democratic organization of Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond, and the supporters of Henry George became known yesterday. Possibly no political performances in recent years have created such widespread astonishment as the indorsement by the George campaign managers, headed by Tom L. John son, of Ohio, of the county and borough nominations of the Citizens Union in New-York, and of the tickets of McLaughlin, Muller and Madden, the Democratic bosses in the other boroughs.

CITIZENS UNION STATEMENT.

The Citizens Union people appeared to be disconcerted by the announcement. The decision was learned late Friday night, and a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Union was called Mr. Low personally attended the meeting. At the close of it no plan of action had been outlined. The meeting was continued yesterday and a formal statement issued of the attitude of the Citizens Union Executive Committee toward the action of the George Democracy. Disavowing all connivance in the plan, they asserted that it was impossible to prevent the followers of Henry George from voting for their candidates, and that they could only accept the matter in such a light. The formal statement reads as follows:

It is reported that the Henry George organization has resolved to support the county, borough and district candidates of the Citizens Union. This action has been taken by the representatives of the George movement without the slightest suggestion from the Citizens Union, and without any previous understanding whatever. The candidates of the Union have not been asked to accept the platform of the George party, and they have not done so. They will continue to stand upon the platform of the Citizens Union and that alone. The indorsement by the Henry George party can be based only upon a recognition of the personal fitness of our candidates for the offices for which they have been named. The Citizens Union has not invited the support of any political organization and has not entered into any alliance, undertaking or convention with any political organization. But in its declaration of principles it has appealed to all good citizens to unite in the effort to accompish the object of the Union, and cannot properly respel the co-operation of any citizen who may respond to this appeal. The Union and its candidates represent one issue only—that is, good city government as defined in the platform of the Union.

GEORGE MEN ANGRY.

The effect of the action of the George met was as exciting and tremendous as if bigger game than the offices of District-Attorney. Sheriff, County Clerk, Register and Judges of the Supreme and City Courts had been the purpose of the hunt. They assembled about the Henry George headquarters in the Union Square Hotel yesterday morning and shouted their disapproval of the arrangement The prospect of composed of men whose attitude on the National questions of 1896 was diametrically opposed to theirs seemed to them bad under any circumstances, but they were literally driven to frenzy when they realized that Henry George, for whom they were making the campaign, was not likely to gain a single vote by the scheme.

"We have been duped and buncoed," was the common expression about the George headquarters yesterday. "We have been sold like so many cattle to a sleek aggregation of goldbugs and millionaires, who have nothing in common with us, whose interests are against ours at every point." Moses Oppenheimer and other recognized leaders of the Democratic Alliance were among the first at the George headquarters yesterday to enter their protest. Naturally they used emphatic language in referring to the plan to make the George followers cast their ballots for the candidates of the Citizens Union. lized in the Democratic Alliance," said Mr. Oppenheimer, "we aimed at placing the true Democratic element of Greater New-York in a position where it could honestly and effectually support the principles of the Chicago platform. The deal with the mixed element of the Citizens Union would force us to support a combination of Republicans, Gold Democrats and colorless people, and thus wholly change the political effect of our action. It is plain that such a policy had to be carried out in secrecy, for it is one for which would never assume responsibility, or to which we could give our countenance."

TOM JOHNSON'S PART IN IT. and of other labor as well as free-silver clubs and organizations gathered, the determination to nullify the agreement became more and more pronounced. The result was a hurry call issued at 3 p. m. for a conference of labor and freesilver men at the Everett House in the evening. In the discussions which took place about the Union Square Hotel yesterday, it was upon Tom L. Johnson, the capitalist and free-trader of Cleveland, who had undertaken the management and direction of the George campaign, that the

the Central Labor Union yesterday, "had peculiar interests in the canvass, not at all in their interests; he did not divest himself when he became the head of Mr. George's campaign. Everybody knows that Mr. Johnson is one of the principal men in the ownership of the Nassau Railroad, a corporation operated solely for the benefit of its shareholders. Naturally Mr. Johnson felt like looking after himself and his fellow-millionaires, although, perhaps, not believing that his single-tax and free-trade theo ries were being at all compromised. Dr. W. J. O'Sullivan had been slated for the District-Attorneyship on the George ticket. Dr. O'Sullivan, counsel for the Central Labor Union in it recent warfare against the corporation alleged to be escaping just taxation, had made himself obnoxious to the wealthy owners of railway, insurance and bank stock all over Greater New-York. If he should be elected District-Attorney and should continue to look into the private affairs of corporations, he might become a dis agreeable person to Mr. Johnson and his friends, fore, why Mr. Johnson should prefer Mr. Fox to Dr. O'Sullivan for District-Attorney.

TOOK THE WHOLE THING

"But to scratch Dr. O'Sullivan and put Mr. Fox in his place would be such a bold perform ance that it would give the whole snap away the Central Labor leader went on, "and n such clumsy performance was ever charged against Mr. Johnson. He bethought himself of a trick much easier done, and more satisfactory all around, and that was to indorse the entir Citizens Union county and boough tickets. Mr. Fox's nomination would thus be much less liable to notice. He would thus be much less lia-ble to notice. He would be accepted with the other names on the Citizens Union list, and the thickheaded labor men whom Mr. Johnson was directing would never see through the plot. But the Nassau Railway's affairs would be safe from such impertinent investigation as might follow the election of the Central Labor Union's counsel to the office of District Actorney."

O'SULLIVAN, THE "MARTYR."

Dr. O'Sullivan posed as the particular martyr yesterday afternoon, cacrificed to Tom Johnsen's "corporate greed."

"I'm saying nothing about myself," the doctor "I'm saying nothing about myself," the doctor said. "I am thinking of the great wrong done it to Henry George and his cause. Mr. George has been deceived—he has been buncoed, and I don't believe that he will fail to assert himself when he gets to the bottom of this business."

This was the feeling of nine-tenths of the labor and silver men who crowded the Union Square Hotel yesterday. Henry Nichols expressed the general sentiment when he said:

"If Henry George is poussed of the mentality he had in 1886 he will not permit this thing to go on. He will either compel an immediate abandonment of this scheme of he will take to go on. He will either compel an immediate abandonment of this scheme or he will take himself out of the fight."

The Campaign Committee of the Democracy of Thomas Jefferson, or George party, had a meeting at the Union Square Headquarters yesterday morning. A letter from Henry Nichols, chairman of the United Democracy, was received protesting against the "dcal." Willis J. Abbott, chairman of the George Campaign Committee, had previously written to the United Democracy declaring that certain names on the Jimobrien ticket, plainly including that of ex-Sheriff "Jimmy" himself, contained unwise nominations and were a menace rather than an aid to Mr. George, and proposing a remodelling of the ticket. But before a reply could be sent the Jimobriens got word that their ticket had been unanimously dumped, and that the Citizens Union county ticket had been indorsed. zens Union county ticket had been indorsed.

WARING'S NOMINATION.

surprise yesterday was the announcement that the George men had nominated Colonel George E Waring, ir., Commissioner of Street Cleaning under Mayor Strong's administration, for Controller. Jerome O'Neil, secretary of the Central Labor Union, was added to the ticket for Presi-dent of the Municipal Council, thus completing dent of the Municipal Council, thus completing the George ticket.

The effect of the George indorsement had a remarkably enlivening effect in other quarters. At the headquarters of Judge Van Wyck, in the Hotel Bartholdi, the news was received with manifestations of glee. Ex-Mayor Grant and his associates who are engaged in promoting Mr. Van Wyck's canvass said that its effect would be to restore to the Tammany candidate for Mayor the voters who had strayed away to the George.

Van Wyck's canvass said that its effect would be to restore to the Tammany candidate for Mayor the voters who had strayed away to the George fold. They have gone to George under the belief that they were to have a chance to vote against their supposed oppressors, but when they found that they would be expected to vote a ticket made up by the representatives of trusts and monopolies, and all kinds of people they detested they would lose no time in returning to the Tammany reservation. Heavy betting on Van Wyck's election was at once ordered.

President Quigg's headquarters, at No. 1 Madison-ave., were filled yesterday with Republican leaders and orators, who said that the George indorsement of the Citizens Union and Democratic machine tickets would prove a boomerang that would destroy the chances of both Low and George. Mr. Quigg said that everybody must realize the utter hypocrisy of the men who were engineering the Low movement. They pretended to be above deals and dickers of ordinary politicians, yet the history of the week proved that they could get down to more despicable and conscienceless trading than had been known heretofore in New-York City. The contest was now narrowed down to Tracy and Van Wyck, he said. Low and George were out of it. Mr. Quigg predicted General Tracy's election as practically assured. of it. Mr. Quigg predicted General Tracy's elec-tion as practically assured.

one of the earliest advocates of Mr. McKinley's nomination, was asked yesterday whether he had any personal grievance against the Administration. He replied: "I certainly have no personal grievfrom the Administration. My motto now is, as it always has been since I have been in the publishing business. 'No enemies to punish and no friends to reward.' The public judgment regulates my own. "Publishers generally are reaching out to come into closer touch with the public. I do not believe that the American people are favorably impressed with the alleged purpose of the Administration to create a warlike sentiment toward Spain. Our husiness interests, which are showing a moderate, but general, revival, are utterly opposed to anything that will tend to disturb the existing equilibrium of sffairs. National and international. Of course, every American sympathizes with those in Cuba who are seeking relief from Spanish oppression, but when we talk of war we are on dangerous ground. Such publications as my own, and others in the same class with 'Judge,' 'Puck,' 'Harper's' and 'Leslie's Weekiy,' have come to understand the value of public opinion. It is the most potential factor in politics, if politicians would only comprehend that fact."

QUIGG SPEAKS IN BROOKLYN.

AN ATTACK ON MR. LOW AND THE UNI-VERSITY SETTLEMENT AND A CALCULA-TION OF A TRACY VICTORY.

Lemuel Ely Quigg introduced himself to Brookon Republicans last night as chairman of the City Committee of the Greater New-York. The introduction was made at the Criterion Theatre, and there was nothing about the meeting to encourage the supporters of Benjamin F. Tracy. Mr. Quigg's speech consisted of 50 per cent attack on Seth Low and 10 per cent of a wonderful calculation, by achieved.

In closing Mr. Quigg denied that Mr. Platt wanted to bose the Republican party. He simply wanted to attend to his own affairs, and supported General Trucy because of a boyhood friendship. During the speech a Goorge man shouted for his candidate, and another for Seth Low. The latter nan was saved from ejection only by Mr. Quigg's of the country. A leaflet on which was printed Mr. Quigg's speech in the city convention was distributed.

It was announced that Senator John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, would speak at the Tracy mass-meeting to be held in Brooklyn.

QUIGG COACHES HIS ORATORS

President Quigg of the Republican County Committee had before him yesterday a roomful of cam-paign orators, for the purpose of instructing them as to the line of argument they should work up on the stump. The allegal "dicker" by which the George Campaign Committee Indorsed the Citizens I nion county and borough ticket of New-York and Union county and borough ticket of New-York and the Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond machine Democracy tickets came in for Mr. Quigg's earnest denunciation, and he told his campaign speakers how to handle the "despicable traders."

As to the statement of the Citizens Union denying the charge of collusion, Mr. Quigg said: "Their denial that such negotiations were pending is not true. The Citizens Union people are liars. I know of other dickers that they attempted to deny and afterward admitted."

In team play the visitors were a match for the Harvard team, but failure to take advantage of the wind and poor punting were Dartmouth's weak points. The first half ended without a score for either side.

The Dartmouth men started the second half with more than faint hopes of scoring, but Eckstrom was forced by his ewn fumble to make a safety. After that Cahot made a fair catch, but Cochrane missed the try for Soal. Cochrane caught the ball a few minutes later, and thus time he sent the pigakin over easily, making the score 7 to 6. Harvard got the ball down near Dartmouth's goan by a blocked kick on the fivea-yard-line and then Bouve was pushed through the line for the last touchdown. Cochrane kicked the goal.
